जैन विद्वत् जगत् का सूर्य अस्त हो गया

जैनागमरत्नाकर, जैनविद्या दिवाकर, ज्ञान, दर्शन और चारित्ररूपी त्रिवेणी की जीवन्त प्रतिमूर्ति, भक्तहृदय परमपूज्य श्री जम्बूविजयजी म.सा. का अपने शिष्य सहित एक दुर्घटना में कालधर्म को प्राप्त होना जैनजगत और विशेष से जैनविद्वत् जगत पर अनभ्र वज्रपात है। आज जैन विद्वत् जगत का सूर्य अस्त हो गया। उनका व्यक्तित्व एवं कृतित्व दोनों ही श्लाघनीय थे। जैनविद्या के प्राचीन ग्रन्थरत्नों को आलोकित करनेवाली वह कलम आज स्तब्ध हो गई है। जैनविद्या क्षेत्र में उनकी जो प्रामाणिकता पूर्ण गहन पेठ थी, उसकी क्षतिपूर्ति अब असम्भव सी लगती है। इस सबको विवश और मूकभाव से देखने और सुनने के अलावा हमारे पास कोई अन्य विकल्प नहीं है। उनकी आत्मा चिरशान्ति प्राप्त हो और वो जहाँ कहीं हो जैनविद्या के उपासकों को आलोक और प्रेरणा प्रदान करती रहे।

अभी २६-०९-२००९ को उनका पत्र मुझे मिला ही था, उसमें उनके द्वारा ग्रन्थ सम्पादन एवं प्रकाशन में क्या कार्य चल रहा है उसकी विगत उन्होंने स्वयं लिखी थी, कौन जानता था कि वह हमारे लिए उनका अन्तिम पत्र होगा। मैं, प्राच्य विद्यापीठ परिसर में विराजिता साध्वीगण एवं समस्त विद्यापीठ परिवार उन्हें भावांजलि अर्पित करते हैं।

Beacon to Future Generation

Pujya Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji Maharaj

- Dr. Kumarpal Desai

In the untimely death of Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji Maharaj, the nation has lost a polyglot, who was well-versed in Sanskrit, Prakrit, French, German, Japanese, Sinhalese and Tibetan, a researcher par excellence and one who was committed to restoration and preservation of priceless manuscripts of ancient scriptures. The world of Indian literature and culture is poorer today and the loss is almost irreparable. A staunch votary of Indian culture and values, his was a sensitive heart that bled for the poor. At the ripe age of 87, his zeal for research was phenomenal. He delved deep into the ancient scriptures, pored over them with a view to unraveling the treasures buried in them. His father Shrivak Shri Bhogilalbai became Muni Bhuvanvijayji and mother became Sadhviji Shri Manoharshriji. Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji was eternally grateful to his parents and the Supreme Being who had blessed him to no end.

Well-known philosopher Shri Siddhasen Divakarsuri had authored a volume 'Sanmatiprakaran' and Pandit Becharadas Doshi and Pandit Sukhlalji edited it with exhaustive commentary - a labour of love of seven years. When young sadhu Jambuvijayji drew their attention to some of the inaccuracies in the volume, both the scholars were taken aback. Later Pandit Sukhlalji entrusted the task of editing 'Dwadsharam Nayachakram' to Muniraj Jambuvijayji.

Jainacharya Mallavadi Kshamashraman, born in the fourth century, had endeavoured to pinpoint the salient features and inherent weaknesses of twelve types of philosophical postulates, and at the end of it he had discussed the philosophy of anekant, which encompasses all the diverse and disparate points of views. The original manuscript of the volume was not available but based on the various commentaries extant, Muniraj Jambuvijayji produced a rare and priceless volume which proved to be a goldmine for the scholars of religion and philosophy. He single-handedly laboured for twenty years with infinite patience and for the purpose of his research he studied ancient Tibetan language 'Bhoti' and its script. He would study a language required for his research and in the process he learnt French, English, German, Japanese, Sinhalee, Pali and Tibetan. He was constantly in pursuit of knowledge and therefore he preferred to spend his 'chaturmas' (four month of rainy season staying at one place) in a small village so that he could carry on his work undisturbed and live a life of a true recluse. He was always surrounded by old manuscripts and would talk about 'Shrutgyan' with devotees who thronged him wherever he went. He was not an 'ivory-tower' sadhu and the common weal was always at his heart. Compassion for all was at the core of his teaching.

Scholars and researchers from Japan, England and Germany visited him very often and learnt a great deal about Indian scriptures from his illuminating discussions and discourses. His piety and profound scholarship touched them all. For anyone who wanted to study or do research in Jain or Buddha religion or know more about Sanskrit or Pali language, Muniraj Jambuvijayji was the proper guide. Mitchell from Italy studied in a German University and two years ago she met Jambuvijayji in a small village in Kutch and took lesson from him. Everyday she recited Navkar Mantra and gave up meat-eating. Similarly, Hiroko from Japan's Hiroshima University studied Jain and Buddha religions and Sanskrit from the Muni. She also undertook a pilgrimage to Shetrunjay along with her parents from Japan. For scholars from Australia, America, Italy, Japan and South Africa, Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji was an ever willing guide and a beacon.

Preservation of Jain store-houses of knowledge was his prime consideration, following the traditions established by Munishri Kantivijayji, Muni Shri Chatur Vijayji and Muni Shri Punyavijayji Maharaj. Shri Punyavijayji had gifted valuable volumes of agam (canonical literature) through intensive research and the same tradition was carried forward to its pinnacle by Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji. 'Anuyogdwar' a volume which was a key to the understanding of agam (canonical literature) was his monumental work and later he also edited Haribhadrasuri's work Dharmabindu.

He presented modern versions of Kanad's vaisheshik sutras against the ancient versions. He had an uncanny insight to capture the essence of the original volumes, besides the researcher's unflagging zeal and patience. The famed disciples of Hemchandracharya were Pujya Ramchandrasuri and Pujya Gunchandrasuri who had made significant contribution in the fields of dramatics and philosophy. It was Jambuvijayji who offered commentary by way of producing Dravyalankar. Similarly, he edited Yogshastra which was the last work of Kalikalsarvagna Hemchandracharya's life.

All his works were published by Shri Mahavir Jain Vidhyalay of Mumbai and Shri Bhogilal Laherchand Institute of Delhi. His edited works of ancient volumes comprise staggering 25000 pages.

Munishri was an indefatigable researcher who spared no pains for the preservation of the treasure trove of Jainology. The treasure of knowledge of Jaisalmer needed to be restored properly and Munishri spent days in scorching heat on the burning sands of Rajasthan. Similarly, he endeavoured to preserve the manuscripts in Limbadi, Cambay, Patan and Pune with the help of micro-filming and Xeroxing.

When the Institute of Jainology catalogued the 1500 valuable manuscripts lying in British Library, the leaders of all sects of Jain religion in one voice opined that the foreword be written by Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji. He, unhesitatingly, did the job.

Status and fame were alien to his nature and would sign simply as Jain Muni Jambuvijayji and steadfastly refused the title of Upadhyay or Acharya. He has been a source of inspiration to one and all and his works are the priceless legacy left behind by him. Nine times he undertook pilgrimage to Sametshikar on foot, covering a distance of two thousand kms. His Jinabhakti was an object lesson for his devotees when he got completely immersed in the bhakti rasa. Such a soul, not born very often, will continue to inspire and hold a beacon to future generations.

Scholarly Work of Muniraj Shri Punya Vijayji and Shri Jambu Vijayji Maharaj

Pravin K. Shah
JAINA Education Committee

During the JAINA convention of 1991, Dr. John Cort strongly recommended that I meet Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji for guidance on JAINA education work. Hence the first time I visited Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji was in 1992 when I visited India. Since then I visited him during all my trips to India and discussed with him many aspects Jainism and how we can establish Jainim in North America. In the year 2007, when I visited him, I discussed with him the eLibrary project of JAINA Education Committee. He was very impressed by the project and asked if JAINA is willing to create eBooks of all the Āgam literature work that was pioneered under Late Muniraj Shri Punya Vijayji Mahārāj. I was extremely happy with his blessings, offer and guidance.

Both Muni Shri Punyavijayji and Shri Jambuvijayji have worked all their lives in the compilation and publication of our ancient Jain Āgam literature and for the restoration and preservation of priceless manuscripts and the ancient scriptures,

Many learned scholars worked under the leadership of these two Munis in compilation and publication of our most authentic literary treasurer. The partial list of such scholars are; Muni Shri Dharmachandvijayji, Late Pundit Shri Bechardas Doshi, Late Pundit Shri Amrutlal Bhojak, Late Pundit Shri Dalsukh Malvania, Dr. Sagarmal Jain, Dr. Nagin Shah, Late Dr. Harivallabh Bhayani, Pundit Rupendra Pagariya, Pundit Suresh Sisodiya, Dr. V M Kulkarni and Dr. Vasudevsharan Agrawal.

The complete Scholarly Works of these two Munis were published under the Jain Āgam Granth Mālā Series by Shri Mahāvīr Jain Vidyālaya - Mumbai, Shri Bhogilal Laherchand Institute - Delhi and by other publishers. Shri Pratapbhai Bhogilal of Mumbai took the responsibility to collect all these books from various institutes and deliver for scanning in Ahmedabad.

The Education Committee of JAINA is blessed by the blessings and guidance received from Muni Shri Jambuvijayji. We scanned more than 20,000 pages of our ancient Jain literature prepared under the leadership of Late Muni Shri Punya Vijayji and Muni Shri Jambu Vijayji Mahārāj.

Note - We have compiled the following list of their work. However we do not have enough time to verify the list because this e-Library DVD catalog needs to be printed as soon as possible. Please verify the list before you use it for any of your purpose.

Jain eLibrary Project

Jain eLibrary Website Project

To protect, preserve and disseminate the ancient and contemporary Jain literature the Education Committee of Federation of JAINA, North America, and Jain Education International have launched a Jain eLibrary project. Under this project the Jain literature is converted electronically into eBooks (pdf files) and made available via the website to the readers who are interested in Jain religion and its philosophy.

The Jain eLibrary website is an online collection of Jain literature - scriptures, manuscripts, dictionary, encyclopedia, articles and magazines - in English, Hindi, Gujarati and other languages. It comprises a vast collection of literature on Jainism and its principles, such as Ahimsa, Compassion and Anekantvada. It also provides Jain educational material for Pathshala (Jain Sunday school). Catalogues of Jain manuscripts of various libraries add to the diversity of this collection.

The website literature represents all aspects of Jainism. While the readers discover the richness and spirituality of our ancient Jain literature it also helps the authors and publishers to reach a new audience. Jain eLibrary project provides totally free access to its website users and it is a non-commercial website.

Jain eLibrary DVD Project

After the successful establishment of Jain eLibrary website, we have received many requests from our Jain monks and nuns of all sects to make the eLibrary literature available on CD/DVDs. This way they can easily get the benefit of the vast collection of the Jain literature and do not need to carry large number of books during their travelling months. With the help of CD/DVDs they can easily get the prints from their followers. Hence we have decided to publish the Jain eLibrary on DVDs under the following guide lines.

The Jain literature should remain on the eLibrary website for at least 6 months before we publish it on DVD. We believe that six months is a long enough time to receive any objection letter from the authors or publishers of the literature. Even if we receive the letter after six months, we will remove it from the website and from the future DVD publications.

Terms of Use

The information contained in the eLibrary website and also in the published DVDs is for personal, private and individual use only. It's distribution in any form or for any purpose whether commercial or non-commercial is prohibited. It should not be copied to display on other websites.

For many of the Jain books we have obtained the permission from authors/publishers for individual, private and non-commercial use only. We request that if you notice any violation of your copy-righted material, please let us know and we will remove your material from the website as soon as possible. In such cases, we apologize for our inadvertent error. Our only intention is to spread the message of non-violence, ahimsa vegetarianism, and anekantwad of Jain religion throughout the world in a non-commercial way.

Request to Support eLibrary Project

The entire project is supported by contributions from Jain communities of North America, India, and other parts of the world.

If you wish to lend your support, you may contribute in US dollars or Indian Rupees. Please use the website www.jainelibrary.org and click on the Donation button link. You can also send us an e-mail at education@jaina.org or call +1-919-859-4994 (USA).

Literature and Technical Supporters

The success of the eLibrary project is highly dependant upon the support and cooperation of a large number of community leaders, scholars, dedicated volunteers, and contributors. The JAINA Education Committee and Jain Education International are fortunate to bring all such people together to launch this project. Several Jain Acharyas provided blessings, inspiration and critical support needed for this project

Critical Supporters

The project was launched when Digambar Acharya Shri Suvidhi Sagarji Maharaj provided about 200,000 pages of scanned images (650 books) of ancient and contemporary Jain literature in January 2007. The Scanned images were received from Dr. Sagarmal Jain.

The backbone support to this project is provided by Shri Mahavir Jain Aradhana Kendra, Koba, Ahmedabad. The institution was established by Acharya Shri Padma Sagarji Maharaj. Panyas Shri Ajay Sagarji Maharaj provided great inspiration and total support including selection of books and technical support in the development of a special scanning program. The institute developed the program for this work. The staff members enthusiastically supported all aspects of this project.

Pujya Muniraj Shri Jambuvijayji Maharaj, Pujya Acharya Shri Shilchandrasuriji Maharaj and Acharya Shri Nandigoshsuriji Maharaj have provided all the literature, guidance, support and their total blessings to this project.

Ramesh Doshi of Jain Education International (Los Angeles / Ahmedabad) provides coordination of the eLibrary project in India. Virendra Shah of Los Angeles distributes eLibrary literature and Jaina education material to the community at large.

Dr. Sagarmal Jain (Sajapur, MP), obtains the necessary permissions needed for certain literature for the website usage, and he helps in categorization of the literature. He has selected and provided from the Prachya Vidyapith library more than 500 Jain library books for scanning.

Dr. Jitendra B Shah of L. D. Indology helps in categorization of the literature. He has completed the categorization of more than 2000 books.

Ketanbhai Shah and Sanjaybhai Gurjar of Shri Mahavir Aradhana Kendra provide continuous technical and data entry support needed for this project.

Sudesh Shah of Arihant Graphics of Ahmedabad India provides critical backbone support to this project. His support starts from acquiring books from various libraries, scanning of the books and creation of the pdf files. He also uploads the pdf files to our website.

Saket Singhi of JVS Technologies Pvt. Ltd. of Ahmedabad India has developed the eLibrary Website. He maintains it and continuously improves various functions including the advanced web searches.

Dr. Navindra Jain of San Jose CA provides database support. He had developed the initial website. Narendra Jain of Los Angeles provides website technical support.

Supporters

The following is the list of the people and institutes who have supported this project by providing their literature, website support, scanning support and general guidance.

Shri Atmanandaji of Shrimad Rajchandra Adhyatmic Kendra Koba provided Shimad Rajchandra's associated literature.

Dr. Bipinbhai Doshi of Mumbai publicized this project in Mumbai area on various occasions.

Shri Lalitbhai Shah of Ahmedabad supported the project by providing ancient and contemporary Jain literature from his library

Financial Supporters

The primary activities of Jaina Education Committee are as follows:

To prepare, publish, and distribute Jain Pāthashālā Education Material to support all Jain Centers of North America. We have about 3500 students attending Pāthashālā at various Jain centers in North America.

To support YJA and YJP activities by raising funds to provide Educational Material during conventions.

To support Jain Academic Bowl activities during Jaina conventions.

To establish e-library website in order to provide reference literature to the Pāthashālā teachers, students, adult Swādhya groups, and Jain academicians.

To support Jain summer school (ISSJS) program by providing Jain educational material free of charge.

In addition to the above activities, the committee has supported, Jaina Exhibition committee, Jaina Interfaith committee, and published Ashtāpad literature to support Ashtāpad project of Jain Center of New York.

The success of Jaina Education Pāthashālā Books and eLibrary activities are well known to all you. In fact all our activities are very successful.

In order to continue the support and to fund the above activities, the committee needs to raise about $30,000 in contribution every year.

All education committee members are volunteer workers. No committee members have charged any educational committee related expenses including traveling if any to Jaina Education Committee. Your contribution is fully utilized to support the above mentioned activities. (3% is deducted by Jaina executive committee as an administrative expense)

All JAINA committee accounts are maintained by the JAINA treasurer. As of Oct 31, 2009, the committee has a balance of $9,521.48 in the JAINA account.

We do receive the regular contributions from you and we are very grateful of your support. Please continue your generosity so that the committee can continue to work to fulfill Jain educational needs for our children of North America. Many other countries have also benefited from our material.

The following is the consolidated list of all contributors ($100 and more from 2005 and $500 and more from 2002) of current and past years. Please review the list. If you notice any error, please let us know. This list can be viewed from www.jainelibrary.org website (Home page link - Donors List).

This list includes all contributors who have supported Jaina Education Books, Jain Academic Bowl, YJA and YJP conventions, eLibrary activities, ISSJS supports, and those who have contributed to purchase Pāthashālā books to support their local Pāthashālā. You can also contribute for any specific purpose or for the general education needs.

Federation of Jaina does not provide any financial help to any of its committees. Each committee needs to raise its own fund to support its activities. The education committee is severely in need of your support. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Please make your contribution check (US dollars) to JAINA - Education Committee and mail it at following address. (Do not mail your contribution directly to the JAINA Headquarters. The committee needs to keep proper record before it is deposited in the JAINA account).
